The Oregon Historical Society Announces its 2010-2011 Board of Directors

Friday, April 23, 2010

Portland, OR – April 26, 2010 – The Oregon Historical Society is proud to announce the addition of three new members to its governing board.

Jackson Lewis

As a member of Tonkon Torp's Wealth Planning Practice Group, Jackson advises high-net worth clients on estate planning, estate administration and probate litigation. Nonprofit organizations are a major focus of his practice, and he has significant experience advising private foundations and public charities. Prior to attending law school, Jackson worked in the film and publishing industries and maintains a special interest in advising the creative professions.

Jin Park

Jin Park is the founding owner of The Reserve Vineyards and Golf Club. He received both his undergraduate and masters degrees from the University of London. Mr. Park also serves on the board of Medical Teams International and YMCA of Columbia-Willamette. Jin has lived in Seoul, Korea; London, England; and Sydney, Australia. He has been a resident of Portland since 1996.

Stuart (John) Shelk, Jr.

John Shelk is the Managing Director of Ochoco Lumber Company. He has served on the board of directors for a number of companies, as well as several non-profit boards including Oregon High Desert Museum and Willamette University. He is currently Chairman of the Executive Committee for the World Forestry Center. John grew up in Prineville, OR and completed a B.A. at Willamette University and post graduate work at Lewis & Clark College.

Also announced were the new officers of the board: President Jerry Hudson, Vice President Bill Failing, Treasurer Marc Berg and Secretary Lesley Hallick.

Joining Mr. Lewis, Mr. Park, and Mr. Shelk are board members A.J. (Jim) Giustina, Dan Heine, Henry C. Lorenzen, Libby McCaslin, Pete Mark, Robert J. Miller, Maura O'Scannlain, Eric Parsons, Jackie Peterson- Loomis, Guy Randles, James Richardson, Steve Terry, and Kerry Tymchuk.

About the Oregon Historical Society

The Society has served since 1898 as Oregon's primary research collection and museum about Oregon history. OHS has an extensive collection of historical pieces, including over 85,000 artifacts and 3 million photographs and films. It safeguards and presents Oregon's history through a museum, research library, traveling exhibits, school programs and website content.
