Welcome! We look forward to your visit.

Group Guidelines

- Maximum number of guests per visit at one time is 60 due to the capacity of our facility and exhibits.
- If visiting on a docent-led tour, groups of more than 15 may be asked to divide into smaller groups to meet assigned docents.
- Groups are asked to:
  - arrive on time
  - preserve the museum’s delicate space and objects by not to touching or leaning on the walls, cases, and artifacts;
  - avoid bringing food into the museum; and
  - silence phones while inside exhibits.
- Non-flash photography is allowed in some exhibits. Signs are posted where photos are not permitted.

Location and Parking

- The Oregon Historical Society is located at 1200 SW Park Avenue in downtown Portland.
  - Upon arrival, please check in at the front desk.
  - OHS does not have a parking lot. Many parking options are available downtown.
  - OHS is readily accessible by bus, MAX, and the Portland Streetcar. Contact Tri-Met.

Storage

- After check-in, museum staff will direct you to storage for backpacks, outerwear, lunches, and water bottles, as these items are not permitted in the exhibits.
- Adults may use the lockers by the main entrance to store purses and small bags. The fee for the lockers is .25 cents, which is refundable upon placing the key back in the lock.

Food and Beverages

- Food and beverages, including water bottles, are not permitted in the exhibits.
- The Oregon Historical Society does not have a café. Restaurants are available nearby.

Contacts

- For Group Tour assistance contact our Museum Education Assistant at 503-306-5251 or Education@OHS.org.
- For general museum information, contact Visitor Services at 503-306-5100.