The Oregon Historical Society presents the

2020 Mark O. Hatfield Lecture Series

For over two decades, the Oregon Historical Society has presented the Mark O. Hatfield Lecture Series, bringing together the nation’s top scholars and award-winning authors for thought-provoking evenings of history. In 1998, Senator Hatfield partnered with the Oregon Historical Society to create this lecture series as a way to present new and exciting perspectives on U.S. History, and the series has since featured best-selling authors, historians, and public servants including David McCullough, Doris Kearns Goodwin, Cokie Roberts, and Bob Woodward.

In 1953, Governor Paul L. Patterson signed Oregon's Civil Rights Bill, making Oregon the twenty-first state in the union to pass legislation outlawing discrimination in public places. The proponents of the Bill, also known as the Public Accommodations Bill, pose here for a photograph. Seated, from left: Philip S. Hitchcock and Mark O. Hatfield.
