Oregon Voices
Traveling Exhibition

The Oregon Historical Society’s Oregon Voices traveling exhibit examines some of the important people, industries, organizations, and laws that have shaped the state from the end of World War II through 2020. The exhibit has five, three-sided pop-up kiosks that can be displayed indoors or outdoors. Each kiosk covers a different topic on Oregon history:

- Industry and Economy
- Equal Rights and Social Justice
- Migration and Immigration
- Environment and Energy
- Indigenous Tribes in Oregon

Rental fees and shipping costs are waived through 2022 thanks to a generous sponsorship by the Samuel S. Johnson Foundation!
