OVERVIEW

In partnership with the Oregon Chinese Diaspora Project, the Oregon Historical Quarterly plans a special issue focused on Oregon Chinese history for Winter 2021. The issue will make visible the long, complex, and geographically diverse history of Chinese Oregonians and will offer both new research and new conclusions about that history.

Authors are invited to submit manuscripts in any of the formats regularly published by the Quarterly (see our submission guidelines and sample articles).

All manuscripts are due by November 1, 2020. To learn more about the project, contact Chelsea Rose at rosec@sou.edu or Eliza Canty-Jones at eliza.canty-jones@ohs.org.
