Please Note: Descriptions are provided by historians. This list is provided only as an information service of the Oregon Historical Society. It does not constitute a recommendation by the Oregon Historical. The Oregon Historical Society will not be held responsible for the services provided by anyone on this list, nor will the Society be held responsible for any omissions from the list.

Resources

The Oral History Association has many resources for learning how to conduct oral history interviews yourself. http://www.oralhistory.org/

Oral Historians

Jan Dilg offers the following services: research, writing, oral history, educational programs, walking tours, and consulting. She has conducted oral history interviews for the Oregon Historical Society and the United States District Court Historical Society. https://historybuilt.com/

Morgen Young is a project historian with Historical Research Associates, Inc (HRA). She has more than a decade of experience as an oral historian, working with federal, state, and local government entities, universities, non-profit organizations, and communities. HRA is a history and cultural resources management consulting firm with more than forty years of experience recording and transcribing oral history interviews. myoung@hrassoc.com

Libby Provost is a research historian with Historical Research Associates, Inc. She has fifteen years of experience as an oral historian, including interviewing, auditing, and transcribing. She has worked with the Oregon Historical Society and other non-profit organizations as well as private entities and individuals. HRA is a history and cultural resources management consulting firm with more than forty years of experience recording and transcribing oral history interviews. lprovost@hrassoc.com

Mikaela Kroin has done interviews for the Oregon Folklife Network and for the United States District Court Historical Society. lafleurdumal@gmail.com

Greta Smith is a former Oregon Historical Society Rose Tucker Fellow and has conducted oral history interviews for OHS, the Vanport Mosaic, and the United States District Court Historical Society. Gretaksmith@gmail.com

Milo Reed has conducted oral history interviews for OHS, the Vanport Mosaic, and the United States District Court Historical Society. milo.a.reed@gmail.com

Sarah Loose sarahloose@gmail.com, sarakhloose.com
Barbara Dellenback has more than 30 years’ experience as an interviewer, and radio journalist. Through her project, Lives Recorded Live, she creates personal oral histories to be enjoyed by family members and loved ones into the future. bcddco@icloud.com
P.O. Box 51431; Eugene, Oregon; 97405

Personal Historians
An association of local personal historians, including interviewers.
https://personalhistorypdx.wordpress.com/